MESSAGE FROM OUR ROAD CAPTAIN

With winter in full bloom our riding season has come to a halt. Prior to the extreme cold and snow some of us did ride. If you do ride in cold weather, there are some safety tips you should keep in mind. In our monthly CMA magazine "The Heartbeat" there is an excellent article on winter riding, be sure to check it out. (Safety Tips, January issue). I encourage you to check out the "Safety Tips" article each month along with the "Gear Review" article. These articles will help us enjoy our ride with all the gear suggestions and of course help keep us safe. Remember! Keep the shiny side up!

Until next time—Happy Trails.

2024 CHAPLAIN MICHAEL (GOLDIE) GOLDSMITH

Matthew 6:25-34 Who gets your stuff?

We all have a focus in this life. The question is where is your focus? Matthew 6:13 we read we are to seek Our Father's kingdom first then everything else comes after that. A while back, my friend Gail and I were having dinner at Applebee's. We had a great waiter. Told him about the book and that I was the author. Will he read it? That's up to him and our Father through His Son Jesus by the Holy Spirit.. I pray his excitement carries over and he follows through on downloading it to his Kindle. A while back, I felt like Father wanted me to have lunch at the Burger King on 21st Ave East in Duluth. Nick the owner of the chain was walking out as I was walking in. We talked about Eli. I showed him a copy of the book. Then we discussed his credit card situation. We are going to sit down after the first of the year and discuss that. Then I went inside for lunch. There was an older gentleman whose Mother-in-law who is 103 was in the last stages of this life. We discussed the pain of losing someone no matter what age that person is at. I was able to pray with this person for strength for his family and that his mother-in-law's journey would be one of peace. Her legacy will not be the "stuff" she leaves for her kids and grandkids. Her legacy is

PRAYERS NEEDED

1. Continue to keep Peggy in prayer as she is still unable to swallow and in pain from radiation. Pray her recent scans show no more cancer.
2. David McLellan, Marcia Capra, Dave Hall all dealing with cancer for healing, strength and peace.
3. Continue to keep Lindemoods grandson in prayer that he will start developing more platelets.
4. Bruce Jahn niece Susan needs prayers for recovery from her surgery. We pray for comfort, peace and patience during this time of healing for her.
5. Please pray for Linda's Aunt Marion who has colon cancer. She knows the Lord and ready to be with Jesus, but hard on family.
6. Continue to keep Manya in prayers as she has been struggling with depression and loss of family.
7. Pray for lost loved ones.

the relationship she has with the lord that she passed on to her Children and their children. That legacy will go on forever.

We are placed on this earth for Father's kingdom so we must be about his business. We are given gifts to build that kingdom. If we use the gifts we have been given to build our kingdom it will end. It goes to someone else when we are gone. When we use our gifts to build Father's kingdom our legacy on this earth goes on forever. Where are your treasures?

Today's challenge: Ask yourself this question. How am I using the gifts I have been given. Whose kingdom am I building? Am I using my gifts for my gain or am I working with the Holy Spirit to see the Father's kingdom expanded?

Go in peace.

Michael
